MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, November 8, 1753.

From the LONDON MAGAZINE, for July.

News for One Hundred Years hence in the Jewiſh Journal.

Since our laſt arrived a Mail from Jeruſalem.

THE middle Arch of the Temple, which has been rebuilding for ſome Time paſt, ſunk ten Feet, a few Days ſince; and we hear, that there is now five and twenty Ton Weight laid upon it: And it is further ſaid, there will be a Lottery in Great-Britain (or Judæa Nova) for the more vigorous Execution of this grand Deſign, and Mr. Jacob Zerobabel is ſet out for the Britiſh Court; with proper Inſtructions how to act in this Affair.

Yeſterday Morning Lord Jacob de Paiba ſet out for his Seat at Sion-Houſe, with a grand Retinue, attended by ſeveral of the Nobility and Gentry; and we hear that his Lordſhip intends continuing in theCountry to celebrate the Paſſover.

On Wedneſday laſt died, at his Grace the Duke of Hebron's, in Berkſhire, Sir Nadab Iſſachar, Attorney General. He was eſteemed a ſound Lawyer, an able Politician, and a Friend to the Sanhedrim: He is to be ſucceeded in his Office by Moſes de Coſta, Eſq; of Lincoln's-Inn.

On Monday laſt a Diſpenſation paſſed the Great Seal to enable Abraham Levy to hold a Living in the Synagogue of P——'s, together with the Rectory of the Rabbi in the Dioceſe of Litchfield.

Laſt Week twenty five Children were publicly circumciſed at the Lying in Hoſpital in Brownlow-Street.

The ſame Day John Hartwell, Shoemaker, was whipped round Duke's Place, for ſpeaking in diſreſpectful Terms of the coming of the Meſſiah.

On Tueſday laſt was held a Court of Aldermen, when it was unanimouſly voted, that the Name of Liveries, which was heretofore made Uſe of in the City of London, ſhould for the Time to come be obliterated, and that the ſaid Liveries be called Tribes for the future.

We are alſo informed that the Statue of Sir John Barnard, formerly Father of this City, and a ſtrenuous Aſſertor of Coriſtianity, is ordered to be taken down, and that of Pontius Pilate to be put in his Room.

Laſt Night the Bill for naturalizing Chriſtians was thrown out of the Sanhedrim by a very great Majority.

Yeſterday was launched at Woolwich the Benjamin Salvadore, being the largeſt Ship ever built at that Place, and ſhe is immediately to be fitted out for the Mediterranean, and it is ſaid, the Board of Admiralty have given the Command of her to Rear Admiral Suaſſo.

This Day was republiſhed Chriſtianity not founded upon Argument, and we hear, a Statue is to be erected in Weſtminſter Abbey to the Memory of the Author.

Laſt Week was brought up to Newgate, under a ſtrong Guard, George Briton, the outlawed Smuggler, who was taken on the Coaſt of Suſſex, in the very Fact of running Pork into this Kingdom, in Defiance of the many Penal Laws enacted to prohibit the ſame.

On Wedneſday laſt 17 Malefactors were executed at Tyburn, purſuant to their Sentence, among whom were Bryan Macmanus and Thady O Sullivan, born of honeſt Parents in the Kingdom of Ireland, where they were unhappily educated in the Errors of the Chriſtian Religion, to which they were bigotted to the laſt, and choſe to lay down their Lives rather than be curtailed of the Honour of their Anceſtors by the Act of Circumciſion.

We can aſſure the Public, that the Report ſo induſtriouſly ſpread by the Galileans, of the Chriſtians riſing in North Wales, is entirely without Foundation.

Laſt Thurſday being the Day appointed by the great Sanhedrim, for commemorating the Expulſion of the Chriſtians out of Great-Britain, Sir Gabriel Lombroſo, Knt. Lord Mayor of the City of London, went to the Synagogue of Paul's, and heard an excellent Sermon preached upon the Occaſion, by Mr. Alvaringo, of the Sect of the Phariſees.

Monday laſt his Grace the Duke of Samaria took the Diverſion of Hunting in Richmond Park.

We hear from Scotland, that ſeveral Highlanders in the Neighbourhood of Aberdeen aſſembled, in order to practice the Superſtition of the Galileans; but a Party of Soldiers being detached from the next Fort, they were prevented from proceeding, by being all ſhot dead on the Spot.—We hope this wholeſome Correction will deter thoſe bigotted People from attempting any Violations of the Law for the future.

Laſt Sunday an Order came from the Lord C—b—n's Office to the Managers of both Theatres, forbidding them, under the ſevereſt Penalties, to exhibit a certain ſcandalous Piece, highly injurious to our preſent happy Eſtabliſhment, entituled, The Merchant of Venice.

To the Gentlemen, Rabbins, and Freeholders of the County of Canaan.

THERE being a Vacancy in our great Sanhedrim, by the Death of your late worthy Repreſentative, Judas Fonſeca, Eſq; I beg Leave to offer myſelf a Candidate at the next enſuing Election, and intreat the favour of your Votes and Intereſt, aſſuring you, that if I am ſo happy as to be returned, I ſhall take every Opportunity of manifeſting the ſincereſt Attachment to the Cauſe of Iſrael, the warmeſt Zeal for the Intereſt of the whole Jewiſh People, and a particular Attention to the Rights and Privileges of the County of Canaan.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your devoted humble Servant,
Gamaliel Rubens Shilock.

MOSES BEN AMRI, Surgeon,
At his Houſe near Moor Gate, begs Leave to inform the Public, That he

CIRCUMCISES,

In the ſafeſt, eaſieſt, and moſt expeditious Manner.

 He will wait on People of Quality, at the other End of the Town, at their own Houſes, on proper Notice.

MANASSEH BEN ISRAEL to the ELECTORS of Great-Britain.

Gentlemen,

NOtwithſtanding the many impertinent Speeches that have been made, and indecent Reflections that have been thrown out, concerning a certain *, in Order to influence you againſt the Friends and Patrons of the human Race of J——b at the next General Election, you will permit me to aſſure you in the moſt ſolemn Manner, that the meek, generous, and compaſſionate Hebrews, have this Nation's Wealth really at Heart; and that to whatſoever Degree of Power they may arrive, they will endeavour to ſurpaſs the Prudence of Joſeph at the Court of Pharaoh: they will ever zealouſly ſtruggle for the Rights of the Crown and the Riches of the People, and that they will never cauſe any Perſons to be circumciſed againſt their Conſent; but will allow the old Natives of this Land all the Privileges, and give them all the Encouragement, they can reaſonably expect; and therefore it is to be hoped that your will, out of Gratitude, give your Votes, at the next General Election for every Perſon who ſo greatly promoted your Intereſt and Happineſs, by voting for that moſt wiſe, moſt politic, and moſt profitable Bill for naturalizing the Jews. I am, &c.

The humble Petition of the Turks, in Behalf of themſelves and other good Muſſelmen, praying that a Clauſe may be added to the Jew Bill, to enable them to be naturalized, humbly ſheweth,

THAT the Act of King James I. could not be deſigned to extend to them, as at that Time there were no Mahometans, as well as no Jews in England; that they have no Country of their own in which they can make ſo many Advantages to themſelves as in England;—that they have an equal Title to the Rights and Privileges of a Chriſtian Country with the Jews, as they are both equally Circumciſed; and, though the Mahometans did not crucify Chriſt, yet they do equally with the Jews reject him, blaſpheme him, and deny his holy Miſſion;—That the Naturalization of Mahometans, will induce the richeſt of them to come over with their Alcoran, Janizaries, their Chriſtian Slaves, and their numerous Wives and Concubines.——Theſe and other weighty Conſiderations, it is preſumed, will influence the Wiſdom of Almighty M——to put Mahometans, and other Infidels on an equal Footing with the Jews. And the Petitioners, as in Duty bound, ſhall ever vote, &c.

A few Days ago Sampſon Gideon, Eſq; a Jew, gave a grand Entertainment to ſeveral Members of both Houſes of Parliament, at his Houſe near Eriſh in Kent, which was the late Lord Baltimore's.

ST. JOHN's, in Antigua, Auguſt 31.

WE have Advice, That a Schooner from this Port, James Knott Commander, who drove to Leeward of her Deſtination, and put into Port-a-Spaniard, in the Iſland of Trinidada, where the Captain went on Shore, and obtained Permiſſion from the Governor, to Wood, Water, and load with Fuſtick. About the 20th of June laſt, three Spaniards, who had dined with the Maſter the Day before, took the Advantage of his Abſence with his Boat and three Men, and accompanied by 8 Indians in a Pettiauger, went to the Schooner, drove the unſuſpicious, defenceleſs Engliſhmen, 6 in Number, down the Hold, cut her Cable, and were making off, when a St. Thomas Sloop of Force, at Anchor at a ſmall Diſtance, perceiving this treacherous Tranſaction, immediately weighed, chaſed them, and, as ſoon as ſhe began to fire, the Spaniards and Indians jump'd into their Pettiauger, quitted the Schooner, and row'd aſhore. Tho' the Sloop's Boat and 6 of her Hands were left behind, they thought fit to put to Sea with the Schooner, which had her own Men only and little Ballaſt on board, where they kept Company 'til within View of the Granadas, when the Schooner being far to Leeward, they loſt Sight of her in bad Weather, and ſhe has not been heard of ſince. Capt. Knott, after his Veſſel was reſcued, ſaw and ſpoke to the very Fellows who had ſo baſely treated him, when they pretended to excuſe themſelves, by ſaying, that they did not hurt the Men, nor rifle the Schooner; kindly invited him to their Dwellings, offer'd him Cloaths, and deſired him to accept of their good Offices during his Stay among them; all which he prudently refuſed. He afterwards got to St. Thomas, where he met the Captain that had ſo timely ſuccour'd his Schooner, who gave him the above Particulars, and ſuppos'd that ſhe muſt have gone to Coracoa or Jamaica.

Laſt Wedneſday arrived here a Schooner from Tortola, with two Men in Irons, who were impriſoned there by Governor Purcell, for ſome piratical Proceedings on board the Sloop Nancy, William Shearer Maſter, laſt from the River Gambia, and are now confined here in order for their Trials. The eldeſt is Robert Douglaſs, Boatſwain, aged about 30 Years, who ſays he was born, and has a Family, in Rhode-Iſland; the other John Ellis, born in London, who ſeems about 19 Years old. 'Tis ſaid, that after the Sloop was run aſhore on Norman's Iſland, the then Commander found Means of ſelling Part of the Cargo for Caſh, and afterwards, with all the Crew, except theſe two Men, made the beſt of his Way for St. Domingo; to the Governor of which Place Mr. Purcell has ſent a Diſpatch, demanding their Bodies, which, it is ſaid, he will readily comply with.—— As thoſe who are apprehended, preſuicate much in their Story, and our Readers not fond of mere Conjectures in Affairs of ſo great Importance, we forbear to enlarge upon theſe iniquitous Practices, 'til it can be done with more Certainty. NEW-

NEW-YORK, October 22.

On Friday Afternoon returned here, the Brig Charming Molly, Capt. Koffler, of this Port: He ſailed from hence for Santa Croix, the 3d Inſtant, but on the 7th following, in Lat. 38, he met with a violent Gale of Wind at South, which continued and increaſed till one o'Clock next Morning, and then changed to N. N. W. and blew moſt terribly, when the Veſſel broach'd too, and lay on her Beam Ends near two Hours: In this deplorable Situation, and by the frequent Breaches the Sea made over him, he loſt 14 Horſes off his Deck, his Fore Top Maſt, Mainmaſt cloſe by the Board, and Boom and Mainſail: She then righted, and the Wind ſeem'd to abate, but the Seas ran prodigious high. As the Veſſel made but little Water during the Gale, Capt Koffler could have proceeded to his intended Port, but conſidering the vaſt Expence he muſt have been at in repairing his Damages there, thought it moſt prudent to return home.

We hear that on the third Inſtant, James M'Neil, a Pedlar, was found murder'd and robb'd, in the Woods, about ten Miles this Side Albany: It ſeems where he lodged the Night before, he was very free in ſhewing a conſiderable Number of Dollars, and Paper Money, to one John Turner, a Briſtol Man, his Bedfellow; who, as ſoon as M'Neil was gone in the Morning, borrow'd his Landlord's Gun, in order, as he ſaid, to kill Squirrels; but he had not been long gone before he return'd with the Gun broken cloſe by the Lock; which he ſaid, happen'd by ſtriking upon a Tree to get down a Squirrel that he had killed. By this Time M'Neil was miſs'd by ſome of his Companions who waited for him on the Road, and imagining he had loſt himſelf in the Woods, went in ſearch of him, and had not been long gone before they found his Horſe, and at a little Diſtance, to their very great Surprize, his dead Body and Goods, with part of a Gun cover'd over with Leaves, and all his Money gone. As ſoon as this Report ſpread, Turner made off, and being ſuſpected for the Murderer, was purſu'd, and taken at Kinderhook. A conſiderable Sum of Money was found about him, which he ſaid he got a privateering, and hid it in a Sand Hill ever ſince the Ceſſation of Arms; but this not proving ſatisfactory he was committed to Albany Goal.

We hear from Middletown, in New-Jerſey, that about ten Days ago, William Rodgers of that Place, handling a Gun in his Houſe which prov'd to be loaded, by ſome Means or other went off, and ſhot his Wife dead on the Spot.

PHILADELPHIA, October 25.

Several Veſſels, which arriv'd here ſince our laſt, give Accounts of their meeting with a violent Gale of Wind, or Hurricane, on the ſixth and ſeventh Inſtant. Captain Reeve, in the Ship Lydia, from London, being in Latitude 39 Longitude 66, 40, found it come on very violent from the S. E. between five and ſix a Clock in the Morning on the 7th; when it rain'd hard, with a prodigious high Sea. At ſix a Clock they cut away their Mizen maſt, Sail and Yard; the Mainſail blew looſe, and ſplit to Pieces, as did likewiſe the Maintop Gallant Sail, Maintopmaſt Stayſail, Spritſail, and Mizen Stayſail: Both Topſails ſplit, and almoſt all the Running Rigging broke, the Maintopmaſt ſprung, and the Ship look'd like a Wreck, but prov'd tight. At eight the Storm abated a little; at 9 the Wind veer'd to W. S. W. at 10 to W, and more moderate: And at Noon it was near over. Captain Reeve afterwards ſpoke with a Schooner from New York bound to St. Kitts.

The Schooner Betſey, Capt. Harriot from St. Kitts, being in Lat. 35, 29. Long. 71, 30, W. from London, met with it on the 6th of October about 6 at Night. Wind at S. E. It blew with great Violence, and laſted near 8 Hours; during which 3 of his Hands were waſhed overboard, but one of them was ſaved. The Water Caſks, Cabooſe, Boat, and every Thing on Deck waſhed overboard; and his Crutch, and Cheek of the Windlaſs, carried away, and they were obliged to cut away the Mainmaſt. For 14 Days after they had nothing to ſubſiſt on but raw Beef, Bread wet with ſalt Water, and about 28 Gallons of freſh Water. Before the Gale they ſaw a Sloop from Anguilla, Capt. Hodge, for this Place; and after the Gale ſpoke with a Sloop from Carolina bound to Boſton; and a Sloop from Providence for Rhode-Iſland, which had not been in the Gale.

Capt. Gurnay Wall, in the Ship Whitehill, from London, met with it on the 7th, being then in Lat. 39, 10, Long. 70. It blew at S. S. E. and then flew about to W. N. W. and tho' ſhe had no Sail ſet, it laid her down on her Beam Ends. She ſhipp'd ſeveral Seas, which waſh'd overboard three Men, with almoſt every Thing that was on Deck, but the Men were ſaved. The Coals and Chalk in her Hold ſhifted; and they concluded to cut away her Main and Mizen Maſts; but on cutting ſome of the Shrouds they both blew away, and ſhe righted a little, when they got her before the Wind. After the Gale Capt. Wall had one Hand drowned.

Capt. Winter in the Ship Parkſide, from Jamaica, met with it on the 6th, at E. S. E. about 3 in the Afternoon, and it held till 11 at Night. He was then in Lat. 32, Long. 71, Weſt from London. The Ship lay near two Hours on her Beam heads, and had 3 Feet Water in her Hold. The Wind ſhifted to S. W. and blew more violently, ſo that they were obliged to cut away the Maintopmaſt, and, to get clear of it, cut away the Main-yard, ſome of the Rigging getting foul of it. The Spritſail blew away from the Yard. On the eighth he ſpoke with the Sloop Molly of St. Kitts, Capt. Peter Read, bound to New-York, who had cut away his Maſt in the Storm, loſt his Compaſſes, and all his Bread. Captain Winter ſupplied him with ſome Bread and a Compaſs headed up in a tight Caſk, and drawn by a Line, not being able to get his Boat out.

Capt. Dowers, from Liſbon, and Capt. Aſton, from Jamaica, were alſo in the ſame Gale, but had it not ſo violent; ſo that their Damage was inconſiderable.

The Sloop Flying Fiſh, Iſaac Cormoran Maſter, bound to North-Carolina from this Place, was caſt away on her Paſſage, about the tenth of laſt Month; the People and Cargo ſav'd.

Saturday laſt Thomas Ruth was executed for the Murder of Charles Quigg. At the Place of Execution he confeſſed, that there was none concern'd with him in the horrid Deed: He ſeem'd to be very penitent, and ſaid, That if he had a thouſand Lives, he could willingly part with them, if that would reſtore the Boy's Life; and hop'd that his Parents would forgive him; likewiſe the two innocent Men he endeavour'd to impeach when taken up.

Yeſterday Capt. Kennedy, from Fyall; Capt. Arthur, from Cork; Capt. Reeſe, from Jamaica; Capt. Edwards, from Liſbon; and Capt. Cockſon from Barbados, arriv'd here; none of which felt any thing of the above Storm.
